A FAIR GOOD NIGHT TO THEE LOVE,

THE POETRY BY

Miss Landon.

THE MUSIC

Composed and Inscribed to

MRS. JOHN SHAWE MANLEY,

By

MISS AUGUSTA BREYNTON.

Ent. Sta. Hall. Pr. 2 .

LONDON,

CHAPPELL, 50, NEW BOND STREET.

"A FAIR GOOD NIGHT TO THEE LOVE!"

A fair good night to thee Love! a fair good night to thee And pleasant be thy path Love! tho' it end not with me. Liking light as ours Love was scherzando

never meant to last, It was a moment's phantasy and as such it hath pass'd It

These Words are taken from the Souvenir of 1829 and published by permission of Miss Landon.

We met in lighted halls and our spirits took their tone
Like other dreams of midnight with colder morning flown;
Thinkst thou to ever win love a single tear from me?
Lightly won and lightly lost I shed no tear for thee.
A fair good night &c.

Thy words were courtly flattery such sink like morning dew,
But oh! Love takes another tone, the tender and the true;
I know thee light as foam that plays the ocean waves among,
I know thee vain as ever gaze upon the mirror flung.
A fair good night &c.

4th Verse.

For him the light and vain one, for him there never wakes That love for which a woman's heart will beat until it breaks. And yet the spell was pleasant

scherzando

tho it be broken now, Like shaking down loose blossoms from off the careless bough Like shaking down loose blossoms from off the careless bough. A fair good night to thee Love a fair good night to thee, And pleasant be thy path Love tho'

it end not with me.

5th Verse.

It was of youth's fair follies by which no shade is cast,

One of its air-y vani-ties and like them it hath past No vows were ever plighted we'd no farewell to say, Gay were we when we met at first and parted just as gay Gay were we when we met at first and

rall.°

part-ed just as gay A fair good night to thee Love a fair good night the

rall.°

while I've no parting sigh to give Love! so take my parting smile.
